

Correction: In a recent column describing the new Kenzo Estate Winery on Monticello Road east of Napa, I wrote that the hospitality area was designed by Thomas Keller, who also provided recipes for the food. The entire winery was designed by St. Helena architects Backen & Gillam, and the recipes were created at Thomas Keller's Bouchon restaurant in Yountville.